Job Title: Physical Education Teacher (All Grade Levels)
Reports to: Physical and Health Education Subject Group Leader / PYP Coordinator/
Highschool Coordinator
Job Status: Full Time

Job Purpose

The Physical and Health Education Teacher plays a vital role in promoting physical well-being, active lifestyles, and the development of interpersonal and self-management skills among students. The teacher is responsible for planning and delivering a comprehensive physical and health education curriculum aligned with the PYP and MYP framework and IB standards. The teacher will engage students in meaningful physical activities, provide instruction on health-related topics, assess student progress, and contribute to the overall development of the physical and health education program. The teacher should be able to work within the framework of the school's mission, vision, core values and culture.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and deliver an engaging and progressive physical and health education curriculum aligned with the programme frameworks and IB standards
- Plan and implement age-appropriate activities and exercises that promote physical fitness, coordination, and skill development.
- Incorporate inquiry-based teaching approaches, technological resources, and real-world connections to enhance student learning experiences.
- Teach health-related topics such as nutrition, personal hygiene, mental health, and well-being, fostering students' understanding and empowering them to make healthy choices.
- Collaborate with colleagues to integrate health education into the broader curriculum.
- Assess student performance, progress, and understanding through formative and summative assessments aligned with programme principles.
- Participate in professional development opportunities, workshops, and conferences to stay updated with current research, best practices, and innovations in physical and health education.
- Build positive and supportive relationships with students, creating a safe and inclusive learning environment.
